This is a revival of a very old brand that was a star in the Chicago area from 1861 into the 1930s. Chicago tobacconist Edward Hoffman created the brand, which was also noteworthy for the reproduction of French painter William Bouguereau's famous "Nymphs and Satyr" from 1873 on the inside lid of the box! The E. Hoffman Co. of Chicago commissioned a new version of this brand in 2006 and it offers a medium-bodied smoke featuring a sun-grown Ecuadorian wrapper. It's presented in original-style boxes of 20.

This ancient brand began in Cuba but first appeared in a Honduran-manufactured blend in 1969. Hoyo de Monterrey cigars are medium-to-heavy in flavor. Handmade in Honduras, these are truly quality cigars with a large variety of sizes to give exceptional satisfaction to the smoker. The tobaccos are blended from four nations, including the Cuban-seed Honduran binder and Sumatra-seed wrappers from Ecuador. The maduro wrappers use only the finest Connecticut Broadleaf available, combined with Connecticut Shade binder. Most sizes are offered in boxes of 25, with tubed cigars in 20s and the Demi-Tasse, Margarita and Rothschild available in 50s. The Celebramos was created in 2009 for a special holiday gift pack of six.
