This much-respected line was introduced in 1994 and offer brilliantly-made cigars in a variety of blends. The Premium Line is mild-to-medium in body with natural wrappers while the maduro-wrapped shapes are medium-to-full. The Reserva Especial line is medium-to-full in all shapes; the Tubos series was introduced in 2001. The Cameroon Cabinets Series debuted in 2007 and is full-bodied.

The Ligerero series was introduced in 2001 and is medium-to-full-bodied, featuring a spectacular Ecuadorian-grown wrapper for all shapes. The Double Ligerero group was introduced in 2003 and is very full in body with a special tapered head to allow an easy draw in the Chisel series! The Ligerero Oscuro Cabinets were introduced in 2007, full-bodied, and feature a jet-black Sumatra-seed wrapper from Ecuador.

The wild Mysterio perfectos started with the 2006 version, using a Nicaraguan wrapper and ends wrapped in Connecticut Broadleaf maduro! For 2007, the oscuro version uses a Ecuadorian wrapper and Ecuadorian Connecticut-seed ends, offered in gift-style packs of five.

The Little Cigars debuted in 2007 and are made by hand. The Daiquiris come in a choice of an Ecuadorian natural or Connecticut Broadleaf maduro wrapper while the Mojitos are wrapped with Cameroon leaf. The Carajos, introduced in 2008, is medium-bodied using an Oscuro-shade Ecuadorian-grown, Sumatra-seed wrapper and Dominican-grown binder and filler (boxes of six).

Brand creator Litto Gomez is famous for his limited-production cigars and has multiple special projects available. A Lancero (7 x 38) is available in the Double Ligerero line (natural and maduro) in boxes of 20; two styles of Culebras are sometimes available, in a smaller size (6 1/2 x 30) in natural and maduro and a Culebra Gorda (7 x 38), in boxes of one; and special cabinet editions of the Maduro No. 5 and 6.

HANDMADE CIGARS: BRAND LISTINGS

Lonsdale	Library Edition: A Tale of Two Cities	7	45	CC
----------	---------------------------------------	---	----	----

This is a medium-bodied smoke of absolutely exquisite quality made in the El Credito factory in Miami, Florida (primarily for local sale only) and in a larger facility in Villa Gonzalez, Dominican Republic. Most sizes are offered in boxes of 25, except for the Crown Imperial and the Piramides (made only in Miami), which are offered in boxes of 10, the Glorias en Cedro (14s and 7s) and the Hermosos (30s). The maduro shapes utilize a Connecticut Broadleaf wrapper. The Wavell Extra was created in 2009 for a special holiday package.

The Serie R debuted in 1999 and offers a full-bodied flavor in both natural (Ecuador) and maduro (Connecticut) wrappers in boxes of 24. The Glorias en Crystal features a glass tube in boxes of 10 and was released in 2001. There have also been five limited-edition Serie Rs:

2003:	No. 6 Limitada	(6½ x 64 in boxes of 24)
2004:	No. 7 Limitada	(7¼ x 60 torpedo in boxes of 24)
2005:	Limitada 2005	(7¾ x 62 torpedo in 1,400 humidors of 30)
2006:	Figurado Gigante	(7¾ x 63 perfecto in 1,400 humidors of 30)
2007:	Especiale 2002	(7 x 58 available only in a tray of 20 in the 250 Serie R Limitada Retrospectivo humidors)

For 2007, a special “Retrospectivo” humidor was created with 100 cigars: 20 from each Limitada group of 2003-04-05-06 and the never-before-released 2002 Limitada. Ten cigars with natural wrappers and ten in maduro wrappers were included in each year grouping. Only 250 humidors were produced.

Torpedo	Belicoso Oscuro	6	52	Os
Double Corona	Corona Doble	7	52	Os
Perfecto	Flying Pig	4 $\frac{1}{8}$	60	Os

This brand was introduced, in one size (the Parejo) with limited distribution, by Drew Estate in 2007. It features a Broadleaf wrapper with a full body. Only 80,000 cigars were made in the first production run, but it proved popular enough to be expanded to four sizes in 2008, all in boxes of 24.

The astonishing “Flying Pig” size was added in 2009, after Drew Estate president Steve Saka saw the size illustrated in a photograph of an 1895 cigar salesman’s case! Only 24,000 of this tiny perfecto were made, offered in boxes of 12.
