Introduced by the Battleground Seegar Company, the Old Powder Keg series is full-bodied and salutes Col. Augustus Hazard, who owned the Hazard Gun Powder Co. which blew up and ended the business, but left the town of Hazardville standing. It's a marvelous, richly-flavored blend offered in boxes of 20, 22 or 24 depending on size. The Corona is box-pressed.

A cache of 100 boxes of 2006-made Old Powder Keg cigars was found in 2009 after being lost in transit three years prior. These 2,500 cigars were re-named as the "Colonel's Reserve" and had the old blend of a Honduran Habano wrapper, Peruvian binder and Honduran, Nicaraguan and Louisianan filler, in boxes of 25.
