HANDMADE CIGARS: BRAND LISTINGS

The Padron family began manufacturing cigars by hand in Miami in 1964 using the experience of their Cuban forefathers who began making cigars in 1853. Only Cuban-seed tobaccos aged for two and a half years are used in the manufacture of this medium-to-full-bodied range from all-Nicaraguan tobaccos. Production was concentrated in 2007 in Nicaragua. All are offered in boxes of 26, except the Corticos (36). The 2000 and 3000 are also available in convenient four-packs.

The 1964 Anniversary Series was introduced to considerable acclaim in 1994 as a salute to the 30th anniversary of the Padron line. It offers a smooth flavor with four-year-aged tobaccos in both sun-grown and maduro wrapper shades. This is a limited-production series and all shapes are offered in boxes of 25, except for the Torpedo, offered in 20s and the "A" (10s). To assure customers of authenticity, a special band with individual numbering is attached to foil counterfeiters!

This famous brand, originated in 1845 and was one of Cuba's major brands through the time of the nationalization. In 1974, this version appeared, made in Jamaica. Production shifted to the Dominican Republic in 1978 and has been one of the most sought-after U.S. brands. It continues to use only the highest quality Cameroon wrappers which, combined with tobaccos from the Dominican Republic and Mexico, gives it a spicy, medium-to-full-bodied flavor. Most sizes are offered in boxes of 25, with the No. 9, No. 10 and Humitube in boxes of 10 and the Originated in Cuba in 1840, the world-famous Punch brand is handmade in Honduras since 1969 from Cuban-seed tobaccos grown in Honduras, Nicaragua and the Dominican Republic. This range offers a magnificent, easy smoke with unsurpassed, full-bodied taste and bouquet using Sumatra-seed, Ecuadorian-grown natural wrappers and Connecticut Broadleaf for the maduro-wrapped shapes. The Champion was introduced in a unique promotion in 2001, chosen by the vote of smokers in a nationwide “Heavyweight” promotion by a 58-42% margin against an alternate blend. Most sizes are offered in boxes of 25, with the Cafe Royales in 8s, Slim Panatella in tins of 10, Gustos in 20s and Rothschilds in boxes of 50.

In the Santa Clara series, the “5t” and “6t” are tissue-wrapped and offered in boxes of 20. Other packings offer eight (Art of the Cigar), 12 (Decadent Dozen), 20 (Cask Aged barrel), 25 (Amatista) or 50 (Cincuenta) cigars.
